“Unite the World with Japanese Obi” Project

There are so many high technology and wonderful culture in Japan. I had a strong feeling that now is the time to transmit information toward the rest of the world from Japan, recover and have a second life of Japanese technology and culture.

I have established a limited liability company called “Love Japan Brand LLC” in July, 2012. My company’s mission is to transform the Japanese traditional crafts and high technologies to more amiable figure, transmit this information to the rest of the world, and increase Japanese fans in overseas countries who are attracted to the Japanese culture and technologies.

My dream is to become a part of for the rejuvenation of Japan by informing Japanese traditional culture and high technology to the world through my business enterprise. I appreciate your warm advice and guidance for the realization of my dream.
